

Supporting Read&Write Gold

Group “train the trainer” session for clients supporting new and existing users of Read&Write. This software can benefit users of all ages and ability.

Who is the course for?

The course is suitable for anybody using, advising or recommending Read&Write Gold. This includes:

- Head teachers,
- Teachers,
- SENCOs
- Learning support staff,
- Teaching Assistants
- Psychologists, physiotherapists and other professionals
- Parents

What does the course include?

- Overview of software
- Literacy support tools
- Converting documents into electronic / audio format
- Study skills tools
- Licence options including individual and site licencing

Venue, date and cost:

This is a demonstration led course with detailed instruction on how to use the software in the classroom.

Charge: £85 + VAT per delegate – includes lunch and refreshment.

Venue: The Cambridge Centre, Villiers Park, Royston Road, Foxton, Cambridge. CB22 6SE

Date: Wednesday 27th February 2013 lunch from 12:30 (course starts at 13:30)

There is a further course in the morning – Introduction to Assistive Technology.

Book both courses for £150 + VAT.

How do I book a place?

Places are limited.

Email: courses@iansyst.co.uk or call 01223 420209 to register.

Who are the trainers?

The course will be led by Jackie Harber, Assistive Technology Specialist. Jackie has worked as a technology needs assessor, run a dyslexia centre and successfully trained many students and colleagues in Assistive Technology.