

Supporting Dragon Naturally Speaking

Group “train the trainer” session for clients supporting new and existing users of Dragon Naturally Speaking. Dragon recognition accuracy is greatly improved when the correct techniques are used to maintain the voice profile

Who is the course for?

The course is suitable for anybody looking for cost effective ways of supporting students struggling with literacy in the classroom.

- Teachers,
- SENCOs,
- Learning support staff,
- Teaching Assistants,
- Psychologists, physiotherapists Needs Assessors and other professionals,
- Tutors
- Parents

What does the course include?

- Overview of software
- Demonstration enrolment of software
- Basic voice commands
- Correction of recognition errors
- Transcription from a digital recorder

Venue, date and cost:

This is a demonstration led course with detailed instruction on how to set-up and support Dragon Naturally Speaking users.

Charge: £85 + VAT per delegate – includes lunch and refreshment.

Venue: The Cambridge Centre, Villiers Park, Royston Road, Foxton, Cambridge. CB22 6SE

Date: Wednesday 6th March 2013

Lunch from 12:30 course 13:30 – 16:30 - (half day)

There is a further course in the morning – Computer Reader and Scribe options.

Book both courses for £150 + VAT.

How do I book a place?

Places are limited.

Email: courses@iansyst.co.uk or call 01223 420209 to register.

Who are the trainers?

The course will be led by Jackie Harber, Assistive Technology Specialist. Jackie has worked as a technology needs assessor, run a dyslexia centre and successfully trained many students and colleagues in Assistive Technology.